

Conference Invitation Alton Towers Hotel 2013

Dear Member,

Please find your conference 2013 booking forms attached. To simplify the booking process, please look at the 3 booking forms attached, reading the title, and then complete just the ONE form which best explains your type of booking. Your booking is confirmation of acceptance of the details below... so please ensure you read carefully prior to sending your booking.

We do not have exclusivity over the whole Conference Hotel and its rooms this year, and the hotel reserves the right to sell rooms which have not been booked by the 01st May. Therefore we can only guarantee room allocation for early bookings, so please return to Jo Booth (Conference Bookings Secretary 2013) as soon as possible.

The majority of rooms in both the Alton Towers Hotel and adjoining Splash Landings Hotel have one double bed and a one up one down bunk bed, in these rooms students will be accommodated in twos and threes. There are also a small number of rooms available which have one double and two bunk beds, in which students will be accommodated four to a room. Non student delegates please note you have 2 payments to make (1st) the Conference ticket fee of £110 which should be returned with the booking form.... And (2nd) the hotel accommodation of £60 per person per night which includes bed & breakfast, and access to the Water Park (not the main Theme Park) which must be paid to the hotel on departure! ALL SINGLE OCCUPANCY ROOMS WILL BE CHARGED AT £100 PER NIGHT! Due to Alton Towers being mainly a children's attraction there are understandably few concessions for children, therefore children under the age of 4 years will be free of charge, and those over the age of 4 will be charged at a B&B rate of £15 per child per night, plus the Conference ticket cost of £40.

Colleges... please aim to fill the hotel rooms with threes and fours as this saves costs (should we be low on ticket sales, we will request a revised list from each college to allocate fours into twos)! We are extending once again for 2 x Tutor tickets at the inclusive student rate where rooms are shared. Tutors wishing to have a room for single occupancy will need to pay an additional subsidy of £40 each per night. Requests for support workers should be requested via the Bookings Secretary and be confirmed by the Conference Chairman, and should be roomed with those who need the support. Technicians and friends are to pay the full rate and MUST be full members.... In all cases, students will take priority over rooms! Payments were slow last year, and we need to pay Alton Towers in advance, so please note that rooms cannot be guaranteed until payment is received.

For the second year we have a 1st Year Inclusive College Graduate Rate of £180... this applies ONLY to those who graduated or completed a bakery training programme in 2012, and must be submitted on the Student Booking Form! This applies only where rooms are shared, and you must provide evidence of your leaving year to the Bookings Secretary, which will be confirmed by the Conference Chairman.

Breakfast and evening meals will be inclusive to all delegates.... lunch may be purchased from the various bistro's, the hotel shop or from the facilities within the park. We would advise as usual, colleges to provide packed lunches on the coaches.

Your booking is a binding contract with the hotel, so for legal and safety reasons, we ask that correct names are given on rooming lists, and that any name changes are communicated to the Bookings Secretary.

All students, tutors & support workers will have inclusive access to the main theme park on the Sunday only. Anyone else wishing to enter the park on the Sunday will be charged at the discounted rate of £21 per person, the full gate price will be charged for anyone wishing to go on Saturday.... tickets for Sunday will be available from the Conference Chairman after Dinner on Saturday evening. All delegates have inclusive access to Crazy Golf and the Water Park throughout the weekend.... Spa treatments and use of the Sauna etc are extra.

Enclosed is the Conference Programme of Events. We hope that the programme will provide a fun packed weekend with something to offer for old and new members alike. We reserve the right to make small changes to the programme where required.

A great deal of work has gone into Conference 2013 so we are sure that all attending will have a fantastic weekend. We look forward to receiving your booking shortly and to seeing you at Alton..... Remember that this years Friday night theme is Pirates, as chosen by the student membership.

Best regards,

David Mizon
ABST Conference Chairman &
International Liaison Secretary
